

WILLIAM NANCE COLLECTION

1861

Biography/History

William Nance was born April 3, 1835 in Rutherford County, Tennessee. He joined the Army of the Confederacy in April 1861, and the diary tells a day-by-day story of the war. William Nance was wounded at Perryville, Kentucky on October 8, 1862 and died October 25, 1862. The diary was returned to his parents.

Biographical information is included regarding his brother, Josiah W. Nance, who was born December 11, 1837 and also joined the Army of the Confederacy in April 1861. He was killed on the Tennessee River June 10, 1864.

These items were donated by J. Connie Covington.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains three items, listed and described below:

Biographical Sketch

William Nance and Josiah W. Nance, n.d.

Correspondence

May 30, 1861 [from William Nance to his mother, Mrs. B. H. Nance]

Diary

April 26, 1861 to September 26, 1861

WILLIAM NANCE COLLECTION

1861

Collection Number: MSS 310

Size: 3 items

Special Collections and University Archives

Jean and Alexander Heard Library

Vanderbilt University

Nashville, Tennessee