FINLEY, J. E.
1920 - 1957

Scope and Contents
The Finley Family lived in rural West Tennessee. The collection contains newspaper clippings that focus on farming and/or livestock problems, and the lyrics to old songs, which were published in the Commercial Appeal in the 1920s. It also includes a World War II Ration Certificates and Booklet.

Booklets
- Black Hawk Planters
- Cotton Picking Book and Calculator
- Future Farmers of America - 1934
- War Ration Book Four – with stamps

Certificate
- War Ration Book One

Correspondence
- 1944-1945

Membership Card
- Cotton Marketing Card, 1950-1951

Newspaper Clippings
- 1920s

Receipts/Statements
- 1945-1957

Donor: Norma Riddick – January, 1993