NASHVILLE AS HISTORICAL LABORATORY

1977 – 1978

Biography/History

The research and subsequent manuscripts in this collection were completed by students enrolled in Vanderbilt University, History 295 (Nashville and the Urban South), in Spring Semester 1977 and Fall Semester 1978. The summary of the course and discussion of the papers, in the context of Nashville history, was written by Professor Don Harrison Doyle. The 26 student papers cover the time period of 1870-1940.

Scope and Contents

This .42 linear feet collection contains 26 file folders arranged in alphabetical order.

Course Summary

Doyle, Don Harrison

Nashville as Historical Laboratory for Teaching Undergraduates

Manuscripts - Student

Banker, David

Black Ideology in Nashville, 1907-1913

Beach, Julia

Belle Meade Country Club and Urbanization, c. 1900-1920

Bennett, Andy D.

Rural Migration from Dickson County to Nashville, 1920-1940

Bryan, Eleanor W.

The Negro in Nashville from 1900-1920

Camacho, Lisa

Three Case Studies of Nashville Families in Business
Christian, Jeanne A.
Suburbanizing Nashville, 1880-1920: Familial Differentiation Within Economic Development

Cox, Susan E.
The Nashville Elite: 1896-1907

Cramer, Cynthia
Boosterism in Nashville: 1880-1910

Dozier, Steve R.
Prohibition and the Enforcement of the Nashville Police Department (1905-1933)

Everton, Glenn
The Black Business Community of Nashville

Fisher, Earl
Nashville Civic Elites, 1870-1895

Griffin, Neill
The Jim Crow Streetcar Boycott in Nashville

Hoover, Hilary
The Tennessee Centennial Exposition, Nashville, Tennessee, 1897

Israel, R.D.
Donald Davidson and the Development of Agrarianism in the 1920’s

Kelly, Paul K.
The Nashville Elite, 1910-1925

London, Kathy L.
The Belmont Neighborhood 1900-1920: Prevailing Southernism

Morgan, Ann Ward
The Black Man’s Compromise Between Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. duBois in Nashville – 1905

Neyland, Thomas
The Development of Nashville’s Park System: 1901-1935
Powell, James
Politicians and Public Policy in Nashville in the 1870’s and the 1920’s

Price, Amy
Urbanization of Nashville from 1908-1917: The Role of Commercial And Civic Clubs

Ramirez, Mike
The Lost Cause in a New South City: Nashville, 1890-1910

Riley, Mark B.
Edgefield: A Study of Nashville’s First Suburb

Steckler, David
The Death of the Brothel

Swann, Susan E.
The Twilight of a Walking City: The Nashville Waterfront, 1880 and After

Young, Cindy
The Growth and Development of the Richland-West End Neighborhood

*Revised version in Tennessee Historical Quarterly 37(1978): 133-54.*
NASHVILLE AS HISTORICAL LABORATORY

1977 – 1978

Collection Number: MSS 311

Size: .42 linear feet

Special Collections and University Archives
Jean and Alexander Heard Library
Vanderbilt University
Nashville, Tennessee