POLLY ANN BILLINGTON ROULHAC
1942 – 1944

Biographical Sketch

Polly Ann Billington Roulhac was a Vanderbilt University graduate, who served as a Recreation Worker and Assistant Field Director for the American Red Cross from 1942-1944. She was attached to various hospitals in Maryland, Oklahoma, England, Algeria, and Italy.

Scope and Contents

The book is compiled of three years of letters and v-mail ‘home’, to various members in her family, while serving in the American Red Cross in Europe and Africa during World War II.
POLLY ANN BILLINGTON ROULHAC
1942 – 1944

Special Collections & University Archives
Jean and Alexander Heard Library
Vanderbilt University
Nashville, Tennessee