JOHN V. VAN SICKLE

1942 – 1946

Scope and Contents

This collection contains six journal articles and two publications, all in pamphlet form. Professor Van Sickle was in the Economics Department.

Journal Articles

Geographical Aspects of a Minimum Wage

Has Private Enterprise a Future?
reprinted from The Journal of Capital Management – May, 1944.

The International Labor Office: An Appraisal
reprinted from The Southern Economic Journal – April, 1946.

Reform of Federal Taxes on Personal and Corporate Income reprinted from American Economic Review – December, 1944.

Regional Aspects of the Problem of Full Employment at Fair Wages

Regionalism: A Tool of Economic Analysis

Publications

Public Works, Economic Stabilization, and the Rural South
(Papers of the Institute of Research and Training in Social Sciences – Number Two)

The Stake of the Cotton South in International Trade
JOHN V. VAN SICKLE

1942 – 1946

Special Collections and University Archives
Jean and Alexander Heard Library
Vanderbilt University
Nashville, Tennessee